

PEOPLE AND PLACES

Highlands V Ruffy

Hume and Hovell
Saturday 18th February 2012

You would think a magnificent unbeaten 87 by local boy Hamish McAlpin would be the talking point of the game. He was almost outshone by Gerry Ginevan's near perfect final over before conceding the winning run with only a ball to spare. He was certainly upstaged by Freddie Haig's catch, which was preceded by more circle work than the Deni Ute muster followed by a dive that an Italian soccer player would have been proud of as he fell to the ground clutching the ball like a $100 bill. However they were all overshadowed by the statuesque fielding of the man without a cruciate ligament (post or anterior) on either leg, who emitted groans as he toppled sideways like an eastern bloc dictator's statue to field or his growls as he fell forward in his follow through as he delivered each ball of his 5 over spell. There is no doubt that Grunta the "Highlands death bowler" makes us all feel a little better about ourselves.

Ruffy got away to a flyer in the first innings scoring 128 from the first 20 overs while only losing 2 wickets. Highlands replied with 138 for 4 with Jono scoring what was to be a most important 1 before the lunch break. After some much needed fluid replacement the Highlands bowlers toiled manfully to restrict Ruffy to an imposing 10- 252. Highlands were amazed with how youthful David Sleigh was when he came to the crease only to find they had been embroiled in the biggest case of substitution since Fine Cotton with young Harry suddenly wielding the willow.

The McCooeys got the Highlands second innings away to steady start before a rush of blood to the head saw young Tom and the Older Jim depart making way for Alan the quietly spoken Jarrot, James the Pommy ringer, Hamish the Hometown Hero and James the Sharma from Fassifern to compile 4 match winning partnerships, which saw the Highlands triumph over a brave and gallant Ruffy with only one ball to spare

A late protest from Ruffy about the scorebook not adding up was dismissed on the precedent that it never has. In keeping with tradition at the time of writing the score book has gone missing (edit note: turned up at Slugga's, who has run it through a couple of large excel spread sheets and he still can't get it to add up to the same figure twice).

In keeping with our elite sporting attitudes, following the game we immediately went into an onerous recovery session, which was carried on well into the evening, although the stress of captaincy saw the Highlands captain unable to complete the last session.

Another great day at Hume and Hovell, which had the capacity crowd of four in Bay 13 in full voice, which was all the more amusing because we didn't know who they were but their sledging was world class.

Thanks also to Andrew Shaw for umpiring and crowd control and to Doug Mclean for piloting the craft back up the hill it was much appreciated by all.

The next game is at Beechworth versus The Riverine Club on Saturday March 24th, details will be in the Granite News in the next couple of weeks.

TERIP TERIP HOUSEHOLD GARBAGE BIN

The Terip Terip household garbage bin is a private service organised and paid for by a group of local residents on a subscription basis. The bin is located centrally in Terip Terip and emptied regularly by Cleanaway. Due to a few comings and goings in the community over the last year or so, there are a few spots available to local households who would like to participate in the scheme. The cost to participate is approximately $21 per month, or half that for part-time residents. We aim to collect fees annually. For more details, or if you would like to be involved, please contact Andrew Holloway on 57904080 or andrewholloway1@gmail.com asap.

GETTING IN TOUCH

Peter Hagen who has played in Euroa a few times and is the brother of Ruffy resident Justus Hagen is running a concert series at his home in Broadford not so far down the highway.

The concert series is up to its second year now and features Peter playing a double manual Ruckers harpsichord imported from Switzerland in a recital entitled Getting in Touch (an introduction).

The getting in touch bit refers to the fact that the programme includes a few toccatas [from the word toccare meaning to touch (the keyboard)]. In a bush setting in his vaulted ceiling mud brick house this concert includes little known and exciting works by Louis Couperin, Georg Böhm, Weckmann, and Frescobaldi.

If you ever thought people were dull and boring in the 17th century, this concert will change your mind. Some wild music in this concert is tempered (somewhat!) by the more elegant expressiveness of other equally passionate musical pieces.

This second concert will be held on Sunday 18 March at 6.00pm and by booking online before 11 March you can book for a discount price of $27. Tickets booked after this date are $30 and refreshments are included in the price!! (WOW!)

Bookings are essential . www.trybooking.com/14799 or you can receive your tickets and map by posting to PO Box 327 Broadford and (cheques to "Peter Hagen") enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

This concert series has been supported by the Mitchell Shire and Tahbilk winery.

GLIDERS ALONG the LOWER GOULBURN

There are 2 types of gliders living along the Lower Goulburn, the Squirrel Glider & Sugar Glider.

The Sugar Glider and Squirrel Glider are small arboreal marsupials that belong to the Petaurinae family of possums. These animals are known as wrist-winged gliders as their patagium, or gliding membrane, extends from the wrist to the ankle. With the aid of their patagium, they can glide about 50 metres. Both live in tree hollows, where they huddle together in their family group.

Apart from being a much larger animal than the Sugar Glider (190–300g compared to 95–150g), the Squirrel Glider has a longer, more pointed face; ears that are longer and more narrow; and a much bushier, softly-furred tail.

Their diet includes nectar and pollen; the sap of certain eucalypts and gum from acacias, licked from gashes in tree trunks made with their lower incisors; and insects.

They live in family groups made up one mature male and one or more females, and this season's offspring.

They are social animals with a group usually consisting of 3–4 females, 2–3 males, and their young from the current season. Usually two joeys are born, occasionally three, after 16 days gestation. These remain in the pouch for 40 days, after which they are left in a nest for another 50 days, remaining with their mother until 7–10 months old.

There is another Glider in the area — the Feather-tailed Glider. It is only 6.5–8cm long. Tail length is 7-8cm and shaped like a feather. The adult weighs only about 10-15 grams, so this tiny glider is often missed.

Let us know if you have seen this tiny glider. Ring Janet Hagen 57904 268.

FOX AND RABBIT BAITING

The Month of March is a good time to think about baiting pest animals such as foxes and rabbits. Baiting will not only target the adult foxes, but also their young as they are usually active from their dens at this time.

Wales Rural in Seymour can supply baits such as DeFox and fox off (you may need to order as they are not usually kept in stock) and the signs associated with baiting.

Pindone bait for rabbits is also available 5Kg approx cost $80.

Wales Rural can be contacted on 03 5792 1088 or email wayne@crtseymour.com.au for price enquiries or to order products.

You will need a current Agricultural Chemical Users permit to be able to purchase any bait that contains 1080, and signs and notification to neighboring properties is required.

Landcare is unable to subsidise poison baits but can offer assistance with fumigation, harbor removal and warren ripping. Please contact Simone on 03 5790 4146 or email hughes.creek1@gmail.com.

BOOK REVIEW

Don't call me Ishmael!
Michael Gerard Bauer

This is Bauer's second book for teenagers, the first 'The Running Man' won the CBC Book of the Year for Older Readers in 2005, and this one was shortlisted for the same award in 2007. Unlike that first book 'Ishmael' is full of humour as the antics of four teenage boys help them discover their self-confidence, girls the power of language and how to defeat the school bully. Ishmael, as the narrator, is by turns witty, perceptive, dismayed and hopelessly in love. The brilliant description of the debating semi-final and its aftermath are just gems.
