Alyce and her talented band of musicians will be performing 'An eclectic blend of old and new music' in the Ruffy Hall. Mixing sultry jazz standards and classic folk/pop/rock songs together with Original music from her latest album, FUNNY LITTLE WORLD, Ruffy folk and their friends will be entertained by an uplifting set of retro sounds, haunting melodies and frolicking beats.

'Alyce's songs are special' – she is 'an effective indie chanteuse, an expressive singer and clever pop songwriter.' Her sultry, original songs reveal a fascination with 60's European pop music, underpinned with a depth and at times playful curiosity of the folly and heightened imaginings of life.
