Hyacinth Orchid

Dipodeum roseum

Spring is the peak season for orchids in Victoria, but the biggest and showiest waits until summer to burst out in bright display.

The hyacinth orchid is found in woodland and flowers from around Christmas to February. It grows to about knee-high and has 20 to 30 pink flowers, which vary from no spots to lots of spots. The stalk is usually purple, and before the flowers appear the shape is rather like an asparagus spear. This year we had a patch with about 15 stalks that I was keeping an eye on. Two had green rather than purple stalks and I was interested to see what the flowers would be like, but something (we suspect wallabies) ate the whole lot before they flowered.

NOTES FROM HIGHLANDS PRIMARY SCHOOL

Student of the Week

Rick

For great work on the Aquaponics & Kids Teaching Kids projects. Well done!

Young Leaders' Day

Jessica, Bonnie, Will, Lucia & I attended the National Young Leaders' Day in Melbourne with over 3000 primary school student leaders.

What a fabulous day we had!!

Congratulations to these 4 students who have already proven they are leaders by demonstrating strong skills and making the most of opportunities.

They were excellent representatives of our school on the day.

The guest speakers were inspirational and told their stories of leadership and shared the message of the day "I am somebody."

Guest speakers were Mike Martin (Exec Director of Halogen Foundation), John Marsden (author), Daniel Flynn (Ffounder of Thank You water), Jess Fox (World champion & Olympian slalom canoeist), Kevin Sheedy (AFL player & coach). There were also performances from BKode (Hip Hop champions) and X Factor duo The Royce Twins.

The feedback from students throughout the day and in the car on the way home was very positive, evidence that it was a beneficial day for all.

READERS' WRITES

"After reading and enjoying the 'literary genius' of Scotty McKay, I feel that his talents are wasted as a mere beef producer.

Maybe he should look into pursuing a career in book-writing as an outlet for his expertise at this stage of his ageing life. I look forward to future items of his talent in future editions."—Jan Sporry, Caveat

"Inspiration" by Marion Rennie—Ruffy Art Show 2012

THE RUFFY ART SHOW 2014 ?

The 2014 Ruffy Art Show will only happen if a group of enthusiastic volunteers takes over the planning & running of the event, which has a great reputation among artists and art lovers.

The current Ruffy Art Show Committee invites interested community members to a meeting on Sunday 16th March 10.00 am, at the Ruffy Hall.

Discussion topics over morning tea will include:

- # What were the strengths of the previous Ruffy Art Shows?
Ruffy Art Show 2014 – Is it feasible?
- # Who would be willing to play a key role in planning the event?
- # Who is interested in being part of a Steering Committee?
- # What other attractions in the area could be linked to the event?
- # Who will benefit from the proceeds of the event(s)?

We look forward to your ideas, your enthusiasm and your commitment so that we can stage a very successful 2014 Art Show.
