READERS' WRITES

"Timely Reminder!!

A week ago, John and I had a very healthy red kelpie.

After having her annual check and vaccinations, we came home, and Nipper happily chewed on a bone.

Some short time later, she was lethargic and just wanted to lay in the garden.

We took her to the vet later in the night, only to have her pass away within minutes.

It was a mystery as to what happened, until the vet came up Friday and took blood samples. Low and behold – it was a TIGER SNAKE.

They are evidently looking for somewhere dry and warm, and the venom is sky-high."

PAUL WILLIAMSON'S HAMMOND COMBO

"They have been working together for a decade now, . . . and it shows. They seem to think as one, whether blowing up a storm, easing up, or locking into a groove. With its catchy riffs and blues/R&B sensibility, this is irresistibly groovy jazz, that anyone should be able to enjoy."
