

Tight Contest at the MCG as Highlands wins again

The Victors & the Vanquished....all good mates at the end.

The Molesworth Cricket Ground looked a picture and the locals were out in force with their Aussie flags unfurled in support and one of them even enquired about the score. They cheekily supplied a new red Commodore just backward of square as a target for the lusty hitters..... the car remained undamaged.

This year's game was a battle for the Ages. That would be different ages. Highlands had the average age of a Bush Doof while Ruffy resembled the residents of the Stairway to Heaven Retirement Village. However, age did not weary those from Ruffy as they put up a great fight against the sands of time.

The ever youthful Don Cook (you've got to suck up to the editor) was the pick of the Ruffy bowlers with 2 for 15 and he was ably assisted by Rob Haub and Shaun McLennan. Richard Eddy would have received "Man of the Match" with his score of 41 runs but we forgot to make that award (age related?). For the Highlands side the best bowler was Clint with 3 for 10 (including a never before witnessed maiden over). He was backed up by Cam Stewart, who took a Richie Benaud like 2 for 2 off 2. Cam (30 no) also got amongst the runs with the new Highlands Legend Jono Rumbold (17 no), who blew his average of 1 to bits and they were ably assisted by the long retired Greg Philpot (27 retired).

The highlights of the day were 3 unbelievable catches by Rich Eddy, Harry's mate Johnno and the Pommy Jackaroo Bertie. I can't use enough superlatives to describe their brilliance except for saying that there are not enough superlatives. This was of course counter-balanced by Monkey's grassed sitter and Jono Rumbold running out five teammates.

Special mention must go to the umpires Duncan Ferguson and David Sleigh. They say the best umpires are the ones you don't notice, well that was the case with Slugga because he was practically invisible at square leg. (He was more visible beside the esky under the oak tree)

The introduction of Greg Pritchard from Caveat(19 runs, and he's a wicket keeper!!) into the Ruffy side who due to some corruption in sport was claimed by Ruffy after a boundary realignment that extended Ruffy's recruiting area to everywhere north or south of the Boathole.

Anyhow the upshot of the day (according to the work of art that poses as a scorebook) was that Highlands beat the Atrics (Gerry didn't play) with only 9 balls to spare.
